PITTSBURGH PLAYHOUSE

POINT PARK UNIVERSITY

Welcome to the Pittsburgh Playhouse at Point Park University!

Each season, we challenge ourselves with a simple question: What is possible? Not only in the work we bring to the stage, but in the experiences we create, the partnerships we cultivate, and the role the Pittsburgh Playhouse plays in the community life of our city. Our commitment to innovation drives us to embrace bold ideas, champion new voices, and create transformative opportunities for our students, artists, and audiences alike.

This season showcases who we are and where we are headed. We are proud to welcome back the Playhouse Rep, a hallmark of our artistic legacy where generations of emerging performers have trained and performed alongside accomplished theatre professionals, gaining the mentorship, real-world experience, and artistic confidence that have helped launch countless successful careers. We are equally excited to revive the cherished Playhouse Jr., inspiring young audiences and families through the magic of live theatre.

One of our boldest steps forward is the world premiere of Girls Just Want to Have Fun The Musical!, reinforcing the Pittsburgh Playhouse's commitment to developing new work while providing Point Park University students with an unparalleled educational experience. Working alongside accomplished theatre professionals from the earliest stages of a production challenges our students to meet the industry's current processes and standards for new work development. From participating in the workshop phase to collaborating throughout the rehearsal process and celebrating the opening of a world premiere, students gain firsthand insight into the expectations, discipline, and artistry that define today's theatre profession. These exclusive experiences distinguish Point Park University as an industry leader in innovative, forward-thinking live entertainment.

The Pittsburgh Playhouse is more than a place to attend a performance. We welcome you to gather with friends, introduce a child to live theatre, discover something unexpected, host a special event, or celebrate a milestone. And as we continue our journey toward the Pittsburgh Playhouse's centennial, we are investing in more than the future of this institution. We are shaping the future of Downtown Pittsburgh by creating a place where entertainment and education intersect to provide experiences for everyone.

Thank you for being part of this journey. We look forward to welcoming you throughout the season and sharing all the possibilities ahead.

Warmly,
