DANIEL KARASIK received his BFA from Point Park University and is currently an MFA candidate at Wilson College where he is studying Interdisciplinary Arts. He has danced professionally in Pittsburgh, with Georgia Ballet, and Dayton Ballet. Karasik has served as Visiting Teaching Artist at Point Park University where he has taught for the past nine years. He has provided artistic direction for the Morgantown Ballet Company and Dayton Arts Project. Karasik teaches and choreographs throughout the United States, at companies, schools, and festivals such as American College Dance Festival, Chicago High School for the Arts, Dance Masters of America, Greer School, Governor's School for the Arts, National High School Dance Festival, Skidmore College, and West Virginia University.

JAY E. KIRK - Professor Jay E. Kirk earned a BA in Dance from Mercyhurst University and danced many ballets from the classical repertoire of ballet and numerous contemporary works with the Cincinnati Ballet Co., Chautauqua Festival Ballet Co., and the Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre. He was a faculty member of the dance department at Mercyhurst University, Interlochen Center for the Arts and the Pennsylvania Governor's School for the Arts. He later graduated with an MFA in Dance from the University of Oklahoma. Mr. Kirk has been a member of the dance faculty at Point Park University since 2001.

JASON MCDOLE was born in Aliquippa, PA and received his formal dance training from Buddy Thompson, Paula Scriva and Pittsburgh Ballet Theater. McDole received a B.F.A. from The Juilliard School under the direction of Benjamin Harkarvy and his M.F.A. in Interdisciplinary Arts from Goddard College. He has danced in the companies of Twyla Tharp, David Parsons and Lar Lubovitch. McDole was a founding member and assistant to Robert Battle of Battleworks Dance Company. He has been privileged to work on projects with Zvi Gotheiner, Mark Dendy and Graciela Daniele. On Broadway, he originated the role of the Dog in Twyla Tharp/ Bob Dylan's The Times They are a Changin'. McDole has taught and staged works throughout the U.S. and abroad. Currently, he is on faculty at Point Park University in Pittsburgh, PA.

ROCKER VERASTIQUE appeared in the original Broadway companies of Contact, Chicago, Victor/Victoria and Carousel. Mr. Verastique's other Broadway credits include Miss Saigon, Phantom of the Opera and The Ziegfeld Follies of 1936, as well as the world premiere productions of Hearts Desire, Jekyll and Hyde, Spirit and the Broadway workshop of Fosse. Rocker's other credits include Paul in A Chorus Line (Pittsburgh Musical Theater), Konstantine Morrisine in On Your Toes (Gateway Playhouse, NY), Sophisticated Ladies (Drury Lane, Chicago), Feld Ballet, Los Angeles Chamber Ballet, and danced six years with artistic director Mikhail Baryshnikov in American Ballet Theatre. In Los Angeles, he spent four years on the television series Fame and was the male lead in the award-winning music video "Nasty" opposite Janet Jackson. Mr. Verastique has choreographed dozens of musical theater classics all over the country, as well as, Cabaret (Saint Edward's University, Chicago (Austin Playhouse)), Miss Saigon (Pittsburgh Musical Theater), Leader Of The Pack, Dreamgirls and Beehive (Pittsburgh Playhouse), Five Guys Named Moe and Little Me (Candlelight, Chicago), A Chorus Line (Geva, Rochester NY), Helldrivers of Daytona (Royal George, Chicago) and the movie Two Step, as well as co-choreographing Rugrats - A Live Adventure (2 World Tours).

GRANT BRADEN (Associate Choreographer, Americana) started dancing at age 6 and was trained in New Jersey at Concepts in Choreography. Grant is now a junior pursuing a BFA in dance as a jazz concentration. At Point Park, Grant has performed in pieces done by Mark Burrell, Nacho Duato, Kiesha Lalama, Jason McDole, Penny Saunders, Daniel Herman, and Rocker Verastique. Grant is incredibly thankful to both Danny and Rocker, and his collaborators Grace, Macy, and Kiara for inviting him into this process alongside them.

GRACE LEMIEUX (Associate Choreographer, Americana) grew up in Colorado training at Sweatshop Dance and is now pursuing her BFA at Point Park University. She understudied the world premiere of Bound in Before by Kiesha Lalama and was an ensemble member in Jason McDole's our better angels. LeMieux has been recognized as the Giordano Dance Chicago Light Award Recipient and has assisted world-renowned choreographers such as Brian Friedman, Tony Testa, Daniel Herman and Rocker Verastique. Her talents have taken her around the U.S. and Israel.

MACY REMENEC (Associate Choreographer, Americana) was born and raised in Michigan where she began dancing at her mother's dance studio, Kim's Dance Dynamics. She is in her third year here at Point Park University and intends to graduate in the Spring of 2022 with a Bachelor of Fine Arts. She has performed in works by Mark Burrell, Kiesha Lalama, and Crystal Frazier, and was recently hired by Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines. She thanks Rocker and Danny for the opportunities they have bestowed her and is forever thankful for working alongside such talented artists.

DREW SHOEMAKER (Rehearsal Director, Legacy) is from Orlando, Florida and is a freshman at Point Park. Drew is aiming to achieve a B.F.A. in dance with concentration in jazz and to minor in multimedia and cinema arts. By the end of her freshman year, Drew will have been cast in two ChoreoLabs and a Student Choreography Project. Drew is honored to have been a part of Crystal Frazier's ChoreoLab process and is excited for what is to come.

PRODUCTION

STEVEN BREESE (Artistic Director and Dean, Conservatory of Performing Arts) has enjoyed a national and international acting-directing-playwriting career that has spanned more than 35 years. He holds his M.F.A. from California Institute of the Arts and has acted and/or directed at some of the nation's finest theaters including the Tony Award-winning South Coast Repertory Theatre, Dallas Theater Center, the Cleveland Playhouse, American Heartland Theatre, Forum Theatre (Chicago), The Royal George Theatre (Chicago), Watertown Theatre (Dallas), Shakespeare Festival of Dallas, Ft. Worth Shakespeare in the Park, Virginia Stage Company, Virginia Shakespeare Festival, and other regional theaters/touring companies. As a playwright, Steven has completed over 25 plays including, The Trial of Hamlet (classical courtroom drama), Brotherly Love (contemporary love story), and Actus Fidei (historical fiction). In 2013, he published a new book on acting theory and practice entitled, "On Acting, A Handbook for Today's Unique American Actor". Prior to joining us at Point Park, Steven served as an academic dean at three separate institutions, including: Long Island University (Arts, Communications & Design), Southern Connecticut State University (Arts & Sciences), and Christopher Newport University (Arts & Humanities). His career in the educational and artistic arenas has been defined by innovation, creative vision, and an entrepreneurial approach to institutional improvement.

DREW MARTORELLA (Assistant Vice President, Managing Director) was formerly the Executive Director of UCCS Presents at the University of Colorado Colorado Springs (UCCS). There he was responsible for building support for arts and fostering community engagement through the operation of the Ent Center for the Arts and its programs including the Artists Series; Theatreworks, the region's premiere professional theater; the Galleries of Contemporary Art, and the University Center and Event Services. He was a 2013 recipient of CU's prestigious Thomas Jefferson Award and was the 2019 recipient of Drew University's Alumni Arts Award. Prior to becoming an administrator, Martorella was a professional production manager and stage manager working for regional theatres across America including the New Jersey Shakespeare Festival, New Mexico Repertory Theatre and the Mark Taper Forum. He received his M.P.A. in Non-Profit Management from the University of Colorado Colorado Springs and a B.A. in Theatre from Drew University in Madison, N.J.

GARFIELD LEMONIUS (Chair of Dance and Associate Artistic Director) Mr. Lemonius is an honors graduate of York University with Bachelor of Fine Arts in dance and Bachelor of Education degrees. He also holds his Master of Fine Arts in dance (choreographic theory and practice) from Southern Methodist University. His career adventures include performing as a principal dancer with the Dallas Black Dance Theatre, working with noted American choreographers, tours across the U.S. and Europe, serving on numerous boards and panels at dance conferences, and teaching and choreographing for different companies, various festivals and academic institutions across the U.S., Canada, and Australia. His choreography can be seen in the repertory of Thodos Dance Chicago, Dallas Black Dance Theatre and Cleo Parker Robinson Dance Ensemble to name a few. He is currently a member of the advisory board for the Pittsburgh Dance Council, on the advisory committee for the National High School Dance Festival, member of the NASD Committee on Ethics and serves as the chair of dance and associate artistic director of the Conservatory of Performing Arts at Point Park University. Mr. Lemonius was recently honored at the 2018 National High School Dance Festival with the Festival's highest honor, "The Outstanding Service Award."

KIM MARTIN (General Manager/Producer) graduated from Point Park University in 1987 where she received a B.A. in Fine, Applied and Performing Arts and graduated again in 2016 with an M.B.A. in Sports, Arts & Entertainment Management. She remained involved with the University since her undergrad and returned in 1999 as Production Stage Manager for The REP, where she also created and developed the Stage Management Program. In 2013, she was promoted to Director of Production at the Pittsburgh Playhouse and in 2016 became Producing Director. In addition, Kim has directed, acted in, produced and stage-managed over 400 productions. Some favorites over the years include: Playboy of the Western World, The Devil Inside, Becky's New Car, The Lonesome West, Mojo, Killer Joe, The Birthday Party, Glengarry Glen Ross, Guys & Dolls, Drinking in America, Deathtrap, The Dumb Waiter, Annie, La Ronde, and Three Sisters.

ANTONIO COLARUOTOLO (Associate Producer) is originally from Italy and studied lighting design and video production at the New University of Cinema and Television in the Cinecittà film studios in Rome. Antonio has designed and worked for various video productions for the Italian National Public TV (RAI), specifically in the documentary and news department. He never missed an opportunity to work in the special effects department and created video effect for short films. Thanks to lighting knowledge, he worked as lighting director and video editor for video commercials and music videos. For the Pittsburgh Playhouse he has designed the video projections for: Pippin, Bound in Before, Much Ado About Nothing and The History Boys. Antonio's video design productions include: Florenzia en el Amazonas (Opera Steamboat Spring Colorado) Don Giovanni (Undercroft Opera), Oceano Mare, Mentre Piango Rido and Il Paese Dei Giganti (Teatro K.O. - Italy). As lighting designer Antonio had the pleasure to design for the CSA Performance Series by the New Hazlett Theater, Pittsburgh Playhouse, Quantum Theater, PICT, Bricolage Production Company, Carnegie Stage, Youngstown State University, Slippery Rock University, Carnegie Mellon University and Steamboat Opera. For more information visit lightingbyantonio.com.

KIARA TATIANA PRESCOTT (Dramaturge, Americana) was born and raised in Philadelphia training at The Rock School for Dance Education, The Koresh Dance Company in the Koresh Youth Ensemble, as well as attending The Philadelphia High School for the Creative and Performing Arts. She is earning her BFA from Point Park University in Dance alongside with a minor in psychology. She has performed in the 6abc Thanksgiving Day Parade alongside various performers and had the amazing opportunity to dance with Stevie Wonder at the 2015 Special Olympics. She is extremely honored for this experience.

TIANNA DAVIS (Poetry Reader, Americana) is a junior musical theatre major with a dance minor at Point Park. She is excited to be cast in ChoreoLab 3 and to have the chance to be the music director as well. She would like to thank Danny and Roker for the opportunity to tell a story that reflects social justice and how we can affect change. Enjoy the show!

HOPE DEBELIUS (Lighting Designer) is a junior Theatre Production: Design major with a concentration in lighting. Recent lighting design work at the Pittsburgh Playhouse includes Water by the Spoonful, The Raymond Laine Memorial One Act Festival and pieces in Student Choreography Project. She has also worked as the assistant lighting designer on Much Ado About Nothing and Vinegar Tom. She would like to thank her loved ones for their continued support through her years at Point Park.

STEVE SHAPIRO (Sound Designer) is pleased to return to the Playhouse for his eleventh season as Resident Sound Designer. Before joining our staff, Steve spent 30 years as a professional sound designer around the country and the world. He is the National Sound Designer for Menopause the Musical and THE PLAY with Rocky Bleier, now touring. Locally, you can also hear his work at Quantum Theater, City Theatre, University of Pittsburgh and PICT. From 1990 to 2006, Steve was the Resident Sound Designer at the world-renowned Coconut Grove Playhouse in Miami. Other credits include the Russian language premiere of The Skin of Our Teeth in Novosibirsk, Russia, helming the sound board for the 1995 South American Tour of The Phantom of the Opera, composing the original score for the South Florida premiere of Angels in America, and the score composition and sound design of Alan Ginsburg's only play, Plutonian Ode.

COLLEEN MALECKI (Stage Manager) is a sophomore stage management major. This will be her first show as Stage Manager and her fourth show overall for the Pittsburgh Playhouse. Credits include: Much Ado about Nothing, One Acts Festival, and It's a Wonderful Life: Radio Play. She is excited to continue working on and learning from each show experience she has. Colleen would like to thank everyone involved for making this possible.

EVELYN SHEPHERD (Assistant Stage Manager) is a freshman stage management major. Her family resides around Philadelphia, and she sends her love to them. She has been in shows such as: Water by the Spoonful (Pittsburgh Playhouse 2020), Sister Act (Antietam Musical Productions 2020), Fiddler on the Roof (Antietam Musical Productions), and many more. She looks forward to her growth as a stage manager and is so grateful to work as an assistant stage manager for Colleen Malecki.

JONATHAN SURMACZ (Production Manager, Dance) has been production manager for Point Park University's dance department for the past 17 seasons. Over that time, he has been integral to the production of over 50 dance concerts, producing works by artists such as David Parsons, Paul Taylor, Martha Graham, George Balanchine, Jose' Limon, Robert Battle, and countless others. Additionally, Jonathan is an actor, director, singer, stage manager, member of AEA, emergency lighting designer, and rainmaker! He is most proud, however, for his work as a husband to his amazing wife, Elizabeth, and father to his wonderful children, Jessica, Abby, and Michael.

SAM KRONHAUS (Associate Production Manager) is a sophomore stage management major, originally from South Florida. Credits Include: ChoreoLab 2 (Pittsburgh Playhouse), Pump Up the Volume (Pittsburgh Playhouse), Bound in Before (Pittsburgh Playhouse), A Midsummer Night's Dream (Miami City Ballet), Palm Beach Summer Dance Program (Miami City Ballet), The Broadway Artist Intensive (Kravis Center for the Performing Arts), An Evening with TONY Winner Annaleigh Ashford (Kravis Center for the Performing Arts), The 2018 & 2019 Dream Awards (Kravis Center for the Performing Arts), and Disney's Beauty and The Beast (Maltz Jupiter Theatre). So much love to my family.

JAMES OGDEN II (Production Manager) received his B.F.A. in Theatre Arts from Point Park University in 2012. James joined Actors' Equity Association in 2011 and has remained a proud member since. James spent several years working with Charlotte Ballet, taking on positions from Stage Manager to Director of Artistic Operations. He traveled to China, Russia, Italy, and Turkey as the Production Supervisor for Martha Graham Dance Company. Most recently, James held the role of Production Director for Alonzo King LINES Ballet, traveling frequently to France, Germany, and Spain. Throughout his career, James also freelanced with the Kelly-Strayhorn Theater, Pittsburgh Playwrights, Elisa Monte Dance, and Complexions Contemporary Ballet. He is excited to be back in Pittsburgh and working with the company that cultivated his career.
